Almond Milk

Almond Milk

A lower calorie delicious alternative to shop bought almond milk, surprisingly very easy to make and lasts 4-5 days in the fridge. The only piece of equipment I would strongly suggest buying is a nut straining bag, Amazon do a great one that comes with a litre glass bottle to hold the finished milk in too for £9.99 – here

Makes 1 litre

INGREDIENTS

115g raw almonds
1 litre of filtered water
2 dates pitted
1 tsp vanilla extract

METHOD

1. Soak the almonds in a bowl of cold water overnight
2. Strain the almonds and then add to a food processor along with the dates and 250ml of water, blitz for a few minutes until a smooth consistency is formed.
3. Add in the rest of the water (depending on how thick or runny you would like it, vary the amount of water you add to a consistency that works for you) and pulse again
4. Pass the liquid through a nut straining bag over a bowl, squeeze out as much juice as you can. You can either discard the pulp that remains or use in other baking
5. Pour into your litre bottle and its ready to use, how easy is that!

Variations – you could add a little cocoa powder to make chocolate almond milk, or berries to make a fruity version (I like a cup of mine chilled and blended with blueberries and raspberries for a wonderful summer vegan milkshake). If you like it a little sweeter then just add another date.

Low Calorie Curried Chicken Flat breads

Low Calorie Curried Chicken Flat breads

One of the most asked questions I have been asked through my body transformation journey is around what recipes I cook. Over the years I have created a set of low calorie, healthy balanced meals perfect for lunch or a light evening option and this is one of them. The recipe serves 2.

300g piccolini tomato
4 flatbreads (I recommend the M&S folded ones at 107 cal each)
3 heaped tbsp lighter crème fraiche
1 lime both zest and juice
1 heaped tsp mild curry powder
1 crushed garlic clove
70g wild rocket
2 heck chicken burgers
Salt & pepper to season

METHOD

1. Cook the heck burgers according to the instructions on the packet
2. Add the crème fraiche, garlic, lime (zest & juice) and mild curry powder in a bowl and mix until all combined. Season with salt and pepper to taste
3. Chop the tomatoes in to halves reserve half for the flat breads and divide the other half between two plates. Do the same with the lettuce.
4. Warm the flat breads in the oven when the burgers have 2 mins left to cook. Then remove from oven with the burgers
5. To assemble, divide the remaining lettuce and tomatoes between the four warmed flat breads. Cut the cooked burgers into 6 strips each and put 3 strips in each flat bread on top of the salad. Top generously with the curried crème fraiche and re fold to make a sandwich.
6. Top the salad and the flat breads with any remaining crème fraiche sauce.
